SOMETIMES LESS IS WAY, WAY MORE.

When all you need is an intuitive platform with angle compensation—we're looking at you, bowhunters and range-day lovers—the Impact 1000 is all the rangefinder you need and then some. If things get up close and personal, range targets down to five yards out, with the ability to stretch out to 1,000 yards if need be. Lightweight and simple to operate, the Impact 1000 gets you on target fast at a price that means you can no longer justify going into the field without a laser rangefinder.
